To Whom It May Concern,

Barron Ryan's presentation and performance were the perfect match for Leader Summit 2019 and this year's Amplify theme! It was wonderful to welcome him back to campus to share his talent and message with our current student leaders!

Working and communicating with Barron was extremely easy and he was very quick to respond to any requests. He connected me to the piano rental company that made magic happen by delivering a grand piano to a facility that had never hosted a piano before – down 27 stairs! It was a beautiful site!

The students and staff at the Summit were so impressed by Barron's presentation. Some of the students shared: "Barron taught me the power of never giving up!" "Barron taught me that greatness is NOT about what you do, it's about WHO you are." "I enjoyed Barron Ryan because I love music and he used engaging examples to drive home his speaking points."

Barron provided just what we were looking for – a relatable story of overcoming challenges and through hard work, finding fulfillment and success. I would highly recommend Barron Ryan for your next conference or special event. His talents as a pianist will impress and his approachable demeanor will leave a mark on the audience. We look forward to inviting him back soon!

Sincerely,
